

PHOENIX AWARD

The 2002 Phoenix Awards were presented to Firefighters and 911 Center Dispatchers at a luncheon on May 21, 2003. Those in attendance included:

Recipients of the Phoenix Award
Mayor Coleen Seng
Chief Mike Spadt
Assistant Chief Rich Furasek
Finance Director, Don Herz
911 Center Manager, Julie Richter

Back row: Deputy Fire Chief, Rich Furasek, Mayor Coleen Seng, Fire Chief Mike Spadt, Finance Director, Don Herz. Middle row: Administrator Officer, Sharon Codr, Dispatcher, Linda Thurber, 911 Center Manager, Julie Richter, Front Row: Dispatchers Steve Phillips, Jodi Standley, Gregg Witfoth

“And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands; and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm.”

II Kings 4:34

The Phoenix Award is presented annually to those who “handled a medical emergency, and through his/her efforts gave someone another chance at life, reborn, just as the mythical phoenix bird.”

Julie Richter, 911 Center Manager and Assistant Chief Furasek announce the Phoenix Award Recipients.

The 2002 Phoenix Award Recipients from the Lincoln 911 Center are:

Lisa Chamberlain
Sharon Codr
Tim Flaherty
Keith Houfek
Judy Johnson
Dan Lindquist
Steve Phillips
Mark Murphy
Jodi Standley
Linda Thurber
Charlene Wisbey
Gregg Witfoth
Daniel Zumwalt

Following awards presentation, 911 Center employees enjoy lunch.